Unapologetically You

Hi, I'm Debra. I used to see my sensitivities as an obstacle to happiness. As a young girl, I learned to shut down that magical side of me.

Throughout my life, I kept falling victim to the limiting beliefs and blocks and experiences I had throughout my life, taken from childhood and adult experiences alike.

I allowed myself to play small and stay hidden, until one day, I thought
"Stop bullshitting yourself, Debra! It's time to start LIVING!"

When I was recovering at my childhood home from pacemaker surgery, femoral stent surgery, and a 2-year case of contact dermatitis, the family decided to sell it. This threw me into a spin until I realised this was a nudge (or, really, a slap in the face!) from the Universe to start REALLY LIVING.

I had been letting the ebb and flow of life take me from experience to experience without considering what it was that I actually wanted from life. And it dawned on me that I had no idea what that was; no idea who I was!

I'd worked with coaches before, but they didn't really 'get' me. Part of that was probably that I didn't really 'get' myself at the time! I knew I needed guidance from someone who could connect with my soul, was invested in MY journey (and not just their formula or modality), and could show me the path home to Self.

I knew that, if I was going to get anywhere, I had to take control of my life. So, I packed my car and set off on a 12-month journey of self discovery. Since then, I have found my soul purpose, cultivated a beautifully aligned business and community, and guided clients to live boldly and unapologetically through empowering programs that create true transformation.

What my clients are saying:

'Where do I start... Debra has totally transformed my life and biz! She helped me absolutely bloom, taking ownership of my path. I had huge inner work to do, included in this was my fear of being "seen" and not feeling heard. This fear manifested as a skin condition on my face, forcing me to be seen, in a not so nice way.

Since working with Debra she has had me come out from the shadows and hiding behind a logo and biz name and has me front and centre, owning my therapy abilities and helping me help my clients. And my skin has become clear as my fear of being seen has gone! I feel so free from what was holding me back. Debra's direction and ability to connect to my needs is mind blowing. Thank you Deb, I'll be forever grateful.'

Kassie-Marie Yates - Holistic Soul Searching

'After witnessing my wife's transformation when working with Debra. I thought she could help me, too...

BEFORE we started on this 2 month journey, I was, confused and lost, had no direction, on a path of self destruction, self blame, disconnected from self and family, we were living like flatmates, I did not hold myself in a high regard, NO self love, disjointed and no intimacy with my wife, how lonely I was making myself. Eight weeks on, working on deep core issues in my life.

TODAY with much pride, I am a Man with SELF LOVE, my pride and direction is back, my relationship and intimacy with my wife is back, sense of pride to do this I'm fucking proud of myself, I've changed, not smoking, saving $400 a week, no more sitting out the back in a negative space, I'm back to where I want to be, organised and centred with self direction, I have my life back and I LOVE IT! Found new direction and purpose in my life.

I am loving this new path so much I have booked another 4 fortnightly sessions to keep following forward, thanks Debra.'

Ian Gosling - Business Owner

'Happiness Coach was AMAZING! Her 6-week mentoring program was such a gift!

Debra is so easy to talk to and through our conversations, so many areas of resistance were uncovered and so many ways to expand my business were discovered. The woman I was 8 weeks ago is not the woman I am today. This new version of me knows what brings joy to my soul (AND to make time for my soul) and is developing ways to bring more of those things into my life. My clients will be happier because I know how to better serve them, too.

You have a gift at helping women find Happiness, Debra!'

Brenda Staat-Tomlinson - Inner Peace & Heal Relationships

'Debra is a miracle worker! She helped me connect my heart to my mind.

I was hopeful to find happiness in my life, my marriage, my work and life in general. I was stuck and didn't even know why or how to get out of it. Every session with Debra brought me so much freedom and unlocked a new level of happiness in me.

We have been working together through some really challenging times over the last 3 years now and I'm feeling free as if I'm coming out of a tunnel, OMG like being born again.

I am eternally grateful to her and highly recommend Debra J Hicks online mentoring sessions if you want to raise your vibration and be the best version of YOU!'
